ASBA CONTRIBUTES TO LOCAL AUTHORITIES ELECTION ACT REVIEW

The ASBA legal department is drafting, for consideration by the ASBA Board of Directors, a response to the government review of the Local Authorities Election Act.

As well as responding to the questions posed by the review committee, the ASBA will explore other issues that might be considered in a corporate response.

School boards and Albertans may participate directly in the review. See www.gov.ab.ca/home/index.cfm?page=1249 for information about the public consultation process.

SIGN UP FOR ABORIGINAL EDUCATION SHOWCASE

With 1,900 Grade 4 to 6 students registered for the October 12 Aboriginal Education Showcase, there is still time and room for more student registrations.

Organized in support of the new social studies curriculum, this inaugural event will give students an opportunity to experience and celebrate the teachings and educational contributions of the Aboriginal culture.

The fee is $7 per student (students must bring their lunch with them). The showcase runs from 9:30 a.m. to 2:30 pm. in Hall D at Northlands Agricom in Edmonton.

Registration forms and more information are online at www.asba.ab.ca.

ASBA FGM NOV. 20-22: WHAT'S ON YOUR EDUCATION PALETTE?

Join media personality Bob Layton for tips and tricks about the Art of Public Speaking. Hear round 2 of Dan Van Keeken's Making School Boards a Neighbor of Choice curriculum. Be part of a round-table discussion about how to improve high school completion rates. Please mark your calendar today for the ASBA's Fall General Meeting Nov. 20 to 22 at the Westin Hotel in Edmonton. Watch the ASBA website for online registration information.
