

ASBA WEBSITE PRIVACY POLICY

Privacy Information

This policy applies to the handling of personal information that is collected via the ASBA Website. It also lets you know how your personal information is processed and used.

What information does ASBA collect and how do we collect it?

Every computer connected to the Internet is given a public "Internet Protocol Address" ("IP address"). This address is also known as an IP number. When a web visitor requests a page from any website within the ASBA network, our web servers automatically record the visitor's IP address. The IP address reveals nothing personal about you other than the IP address from which you have accessed the ASBA website. ASBA uses this information to examine our traffic in aggregate, compile website-usage-statistics, and to investigate misuse of our network or to cooperate with law enforcement. ASBA does not collect and/or evaluate this information for specific individuals. ASBA web servers do not automatically record e-mail addresses of the visitors.

Does ASBA use cookies?

The ASBA website currently does not use cookies, however from time to time, ASBA may use cookies to facilitate and improve the quality of our service. Cookies may be used to manage user login authentication and personalize site content. ASBA does not use cookies to collect demographic information.

You can choose whether to accept cookies by changing the settings of your internet browser. Most browsers are initially setup to accept cookies, but you can reset your browser to refuse all cookies, or allow your browser to show you when a cookie is being sent. If you choose not to accept these cookies, your experience at our website may be diminished.

Will ASBA use my e-mail address?

When you send ASBA an e-mail, ASBA will use your name and e-mail address to respond to your question or concern. Your e-mail may be shared amongst ASBA staff to assist in responding to your question or concern.

What should I know about the links to other websites?

The ASBA website contains many links to other websites that take you outside our service. The ASBA Website Policy does not extend to those other websites. ASBA is not responsible for the privacy practices or content of such third party websites or portals. ASBA encourages its users to be aware when they leave the ASBA website to read the privacy statements of these third party sites.
