Al-Amal Online Academy

Competition #PLSD-2106

We are looking for an inspiring, dedicated and experienced leader to serve as Principal of our online and blended learning programs. We are a growing Islamic online school offering high-quality, faith-based education to students across the globe. Our innovative programs include fully online as well as blended learning options, combining academic excellence with strong Islamic values.

The ideal candidate will bring strong leadership, a deep understanding of online education, and a commitment to Islamic values. This role involves overseeing academic programs, mentoring teachers, supporting student success, and strengthening our international presence. Candidates will be confident using computers and the internet with familiarity in online platforms. Experience with the Canvas LMS is especially beneficial. Preference will be given to an individual who demonstrates proficiency and experience in operating in an online learning environment.

This is a full time probationary position that combines administrative leadership with teaching responsibilities. An administrative allowance is provided in recognition of the leadership duties. The position will commence on the first day of the 2025-2026 school year.

Applicants must possess the following qualifications and experience:

- A Master's degree, or working towards completion of;
- Leadership Quality Standard certification (Principals) and/or working towards one;
- Previous administrative experience at the principal level is preferred;
- Strong interpersonal, team building, staff development, and leadership skills to provide a balanced advocacy for teachers, students, and parents;
- Ability to collaborate with Senior Administration, Central Office staff, parents, and community to provide leadership within the expectations and priorities articulated in Board policy and as identified by the community;
- Organizational and administrative skills in working with budgets and data to support goals and priorities as set by administration;
- Ability to motivate and inspire staff and students to high levels of achievement;
- Ability to ensure and influence quality instruction and learning in all classrooms;
- Ability to establish and maintain a respectful, orderly, and purposeful school environment;
- Ability to lead with integrity with commitment to the community.
